XL™ ELITE BRUSHES FROM PURDY® DELIVER HIGH PERFORMANCE FOR A PERFECT FINISH WITH ALL PAINTS AND STAINS

CLEVELAND – Finding the right type of brush for painting project is extremely important, but can sometimes be a bit tricky. The new line of XL™ Elite brushes from Purdy®, the leader in the paint applicator and tool industry, takes the guesswork out of selecting the right paintbrush. XL Elite brushes are extremely versatile and can be used with all paints and stains, indoors or out.

“As paint coatings have continued to evolve, such as the creation of low-VOC or fast-drying acrylic options, Purdy looked to create a line of brushes that would provide exceptional results with virtually any type of paint or stain,” said Andrew Marsden, Purdy product manager. “The XL Elite brushes have a unique blend of bristles that will achieve a perfect finish and are easier to clean when using thicker paints.”

The unique blend of Chinex® and polyester filaments used in the XL Elite brushes allow for better shape and stiffness retention, plus offer faster clean up. Also, the stainless steel ferrule won't rust. The XL Elite line features a number of brush sizes and styles, including:
